Focus

A monthly broadcast on the Machines Production website and YouTube channel, in which a panel of specially invited experts talk about the subjects that are making news in the industrial sector at the time.

These SPECIAL REPORTS are made on site by our editorial team and, if desired, can be integrated into one of the MP Shows to highlight exchanges or products independently and inform your clients and prospects through effective, stand-out, narrative content.

These LIVE broadcasts are live, during a tradeshow, inauguration or open day and broadcast on the Machines Production website, YouTube Channel and social media by the following day at the latest, they are brief shows that get to the point and will get your message out quickly and effectively.

The FOCUS videos are made in collaboration with our journalists and are an ideal way to present your business, its values, solutions and service proposals. They are broadcast on the Machines Production website, YouTube channel and social media, they can be customised with your visual identity and business contact data.
